A Better Alternative

The loss of memory can be frustrating and upsetting for both the individual and their loved ones.

Perhaps you received a call from a neighbor when your father was found wandering the street, unable to find his way home. Or maybe what began with your mother forgetting names of her grandchildren has degenerated into forgetting to take prescription medications, severely compromising her health. At some point, caring for your loved one at home may not be the best option for any of you.

At The Shores at Wesley Manor, we understand it's important for older adults who are facing memory loss to live in friendly, receptive surroundings with an experienced staff who can provide proper care and support.

We Can Help

Housed in Assisted Living, the Memory Support Residence offers an environment, programs and services specially designed to care for the older adult with dementia. Many who suffer from the various forms of dementia show a wide range of capabilities.

Our programs are designed to maximize these capabilities and to encourage and maintain an individual's independence even as their capabilities decline. Here, your loved one will receive more extensive monitoring, directing and personal care than in the general population of Assisted Living, while still enjoying the privacy, dignity and respect he or she deserves.

Personalized Plans

Caring for those with dementia can be challenging. Our approach to caring for residents with memory loss varies, depending on the progression of the disease. We provide specialized services that are tailored to the individual needs of our residents, in an environment designed to:

Minimize confusion

Be safe and secure

Be adaptable

Nurture independence

Provide stimulating and entertaining activities

Maximize quality of life

The Role You Play

At The Shores, families are encouraged to participate in care planning sessions and are welcomed to visit any time. Stop by for meals; take your loved one on an outing or home for a visit. By placing your loved one's health care in our hands, you can devote more time to doing what you do best: providing emotional support and loving attention. Let us help you find an alternative that will enable you and your loved one to live life to the fullest. We will be happy to arrange a visit to The Shores at Wesley Manor.
